

Please. There are more important things going on in this country right now.
Stop bullying satellite radio!